

On behalf of the 12 million registered boat owners in the U.S., BoatU.S. opposed Maritel's petition to use maritime frequencies for land-based purposes. Maritel has not lived up to past promises to provide service to the maritime sector and the FCC should make its top priority the protection of the remaining available marine frequencies for maritime use only for the safety and benefit of the boating public.